

Additional Prostate Cancer Resources

In addition to ZERO, other national nonprofit organizations provide support, resources, and services to men and their families impacted by prostate cancer. We encourage you to use the resources and support of all organizations as appropriate to you.

Malecare

www.malecare.org

212-673-4920

Malecare, Inc develops practical, life enhancing men's health programs. In 1998 they became the world's first men's cancer survivor organization to focus on gay and bisexual men's survivorship. They offer several online support groups for men with prostate cancer.

Men's Health Network

www.menshealthnetwork.org

202-543-6461

Men's Health Network (MHN) is a national non-profit organization whose mission is to reach men, boys, and their families where they live, work, play, and pray with health awareness and disease prevention messages and tools, screening programs, educational materials, advocacy opportunities, and patient navigation.

Prostate Cancer Foundation

www.pcf.org

800-757-2873

Founded in 1993, PCF has raised more than $615 million and provided funding to more than 2,000 research programs at nearly 200 cancer centers and universities. The PCF global research enterprise now extends to 19 countries. PCF advocates for greater awareness of prostate cancer and more efficient investment of governmental research funds for transformational cancer research.

Prostate Cancer Research Institute

www.prostate-cancer.org

800-641-7274

The Prostate Cancer Research Institute is a charitable not-for-profit organization whose mission is to improve the quality of men's lives by supporting research and disseminating information that educates and empowers patients, families and the medical community. They offer a helpline for patients and an informational website.

Prostate Conditions Education Council

<http://www.prostateconditions.org/>

866-477-6788

A national organization committed to men's health, PCEC is dedicated to saving lives through awareness and the education of men, the women in their lives, as well as the medical community about prostate cancer prevalence, the importance of early detection, and available treatment options, as well as other men's health issues.

Prostate Health Education Network

www.prostatehealthed.org

617-481-4020

Founded in 2003, PHEN's mission is to eliminate the disparity in prostate cancer for African Americans and to advocate for greater research that will cure this disease.

The Prostate Net

www.prostate.net

By providing tools and information on everything from prostate treatments and erectile dysfunction to meditation, recipes, meal plans and nutrition this website aims to be the leading resource for men, and their partners and loved ones, seeking a holistic and integrative approach to ongoing health and wellness.

Urology Care Foundation/American Urological Association

www.urologyhealth.org

800-828-7866

The Urology Care Foundation advances urologic research and education. We work with health care providers, researchers, patients and caregivers to improve patients' lives. The Urology Care Foundation is the official foundation of the American Urological Association. They provide patient education and a service for finding an urologist.

Us TOO International

www.ustoo.org

800-808-7866 (80-UsTOO)

UsToo provides support and education through a network of 325 support groups. The meetings are face to face and give men and their families an opportunity to find peer-to-peer support. They also provide support group meetings that are held by phone.

Women Against Prostate Cancer

www.womenagainstoprostatecancer.org

Women Against Prostate Cancer (WAPC) is a national organization working to unite the voices and provide support for the millions of women affected by prostate cancer, and their families. WAPC advocates prostate cancer education, public awareness, screenings, legislation, and treatment options.