Someone to talk to . . .
who understands

June 25, 2009

Dear Us TOO Support Group/Chapter Leaders and Friends,

Many of you have been responding asking to have the HotSheets delivered and I sure appreciate your willingness to help by picking up the costs of your postage. Some of you have even tapped into your accounts you have developed here from some of your fundraising efforts.

As you will see in this July 2009 issue of the HotSheet we have information on many of the high profile announcements from the May ASCO meeting. We continue to see new tests and promising developments. We also have entertaining and insightful opinions and comments by Doctors Moyad and Chodak again as well.

Also please note that we have again placed the notice that we are seeking applications for Us TOO Board members to serve on the Board of Directors. Please spread the word with people who can help guide our organization.

As you may recall, last month we sent a copy of the new Signposts brochure and we feature a short article in this edition. Signposts is meant to help men and their families who are newly diagnosed or have a recurrence to understand better the many diagnostic tests and procedures. Signposts was made possible with support from Aureon Laboratories, EUSA Pharma and Medrad...a special thank you to them.

Look soon for another new Us TOO brochure on incontinence titled In Control: The Facts About Male Urinary Incontinence, Options for Coping Strategies & Treatment. This new incontinence piece is made possible by a contribution from TENA and should be available on the Us TOO website by the time you get this letter.

We are enclosing another announcement of the 2009 Prostate Cancer Conference produced by PCRI. The conference will be held again in Los Angeles and is scheduled for September 12-13, 2009.

Finally, in the area of awareness building for prostate cancer, we are looking for volunteer help to support Ed Randall's Bat for a Cure Minor League Road Trip events at approximately 135 minor league baseball games over the next few months. Look for an announcement from us with a schedule soon or call Terri here at the home office.

Sincerely,

Thomas N. Kirk, President and CEO
